PRIORAT

Priorat wineries will open their doors to you. The Priorat Tourist Office has prepared a wine route of our two wine appellations: DO Montsant and DOQ Priorat. (Please ask for our "Wine Route" leaflets).

Olive oil trail

The olive oil of the Priorat is superb. We would like to invite you to get to know how it is made, its characteristics and the various oil mills or presses which make up the Olive Oil Route. (Please ask for our "Olive Oil Route" leaflet).

ENG MAP-GUIDE TOURIST SERVICES

Why not take a peek at a little land whose people can be traced back to ancient times? From its hideaway far from the ever-changing bustle of the outside world, this land has watched history unfold.

It is a land of steep vineyards, harsh cliffs and imposing rock-faces, hidden valleys and cool ravines. It is a place of flatlands and mountains, crystal-clear streams, sunny and ordered cultivated areas.

It is a world of small but resilient villages which have survived plagues, severe frosts, conquests and floods. This land has been inhabited since men lived in caves; since they started to work the land and build dry-stone walls to support the slopes. They cleared the forests and planted their crops; they constructed bridges, hermitages and castles.

Come and meet the men and women of the Priorat region who have cultivated their love of this land and its countryside. Newcomers are captivated by the magic of this place, where angels climb ladders and wine runs through people's veins.

HIKING PATHS NETWORK

La Xarxa de Camins del Priorat (The Priorat Hiking Paths Network) is made up of former royal ways, packhorse trails, footpaths, cart tracks and also modern farm tracks. These are paths which have been cleared and are being maintained by the Consell Comarcal, local town halls, the Parc Natural de la Serra de Montsant (Montsant Natural Park) and the Consorci de la Serra de Lliberia (Serra de Lliberia Consortium). The paths of the Priorat Hiking Network are marked with painted yellow waymarkers except for those which coincide with parts of GR (European Hiking Network Long Trails) or PR (Short Trails). On these paths the FECC (Catalan Rambling Club Federation) waymarkers are used.

08 COVA DE SANTA LLÚCIA

La Bisbal de Falset

This immense cave made out of conglomerate rock can be found at one kilometre from the village of La Bisbal de Falset on the road to La Palma d'Ebre. In July, 1938, a few days before the Battle of the Ebro began, the cave was prepared as a field hospital by the Republican troops.

El Priorat, committed with sustainable tourism

09 SERRA DE MONTSANT

The Montsant Mountain Range was declared a Natural Park in 2002 and is regarded as a symbol of the Priorat and Tarragona province. This mountain range has sheer cliffs and rocky areas which are accessed via so-called "Graus". These "Graus" are passes in the rock which allow walkers through onto the uppermost plateau. Some of them are quite easy and broad as they were once used as packhorse trails to get from one village to another, whereas others are just wide enough for a person to pass in single file.
http://parcsnaturals.gencat.cat/montsant

10 SERRA DE LLABERIA

More than mere mountains, the Llaberia and Collejou Mountain Ranges are fortresses: castles constructed by their steep cliffs and walls of limestone rock. Their characteristic shapes are an undeniable part of the countryside of the Priorat region and the Tarragona province.

11 EMBASSAMENTS DE SIURANA AND ELS GUIAMETS

These reservoirs offer water sports such as canoeing and kayaking.

PRIORAT HERMITAGES

The Priorat has been inhabited by hermits for many centuries. There are 16 hermitages which are scattered across the country in places of outstanding natural beauty. Many of these hermitages can be reached by car.

12 HISTORIC HAMLET AND OUTSTANDING VIEWS

Siurana

This pretty hamlet, with cobbled streets and stone houses was once a defensive point and impassable border between the Christian and Islamic Worlds. Siurana was the last Moorish stronghold in Catalonia (it fell in 1153) and there are remains of the Moorish fortress at the entrance to the village as well as a beautiful 12th century Romanesque church.

21 PREHISTORIC ARCHAEOLOGICAL REMAINS PUIG ROIG DEL ROGET

El Masroig

Puig Roig is an archaeological site which is within the municipal boundaries of the village of El Masroig. This historically important site is hidden in woodland and is perched on the top of a small hill with views over the Siurana river and Montsant Mountain Range. The site dates back to the ninth and seventh centuries B.C. and is one of the best preserved sites in Catalonia.
