

Tastings at home

Buil & Gine presents a new way to enjoy our wines: we go to wherever you are for living an experience as if you were in the Priorat! It doesn't matter the knowledge that you have, you will only be responsible for preparing the space and the company's desire to have and enjoy a good time...

The wine is culture, entertainment and joy but also effort, work and sacrifice. The wine has been, is and will be an essential ingredient of any event, as a part of our life. For this reason, "Tasting at home" combines knowledge with fun.

The event is designed for you to learn at the same time that you can enjoy good wine with your friends, family, colleagues, etc. We explain the tasting methods, doing a brief introduction to the world of wine and finally we will do the tasting of each, doing the sensory analysing.
